

Dear FCC,

I am writing in strong support of the CapTel service by Ultratec. It would make my life as a late-deafened person so much easier. I work in a high-tech, fast paced, billion dollar company where communication speed is vital. Anything to improve my means of communication will subsequently improve my career and personal life. Thank you very much. Nisha Barochia